

Grabs Excavator Styles

Delivering Engineering
Excellence

Excavator Grabs, also called Grapples, are tools attached to excavators for grabbing and moving materials such as debris, rocks, and wood. They can come in hydraulic, mechanical and/or custom types.

They are commonly used in the construction and forestry industries.

Contatore Engineering manufacture (built to client specifications) and repair all types of grabs for excavators.

Contact Us

97 Radium Street, Welshpool
WA 6106

(08) 9356 2725

enquiries@contatoreengineering.com.au

www.contatoreengineering.com.au